

Series 21 is one of the easiest series to ID by feel. With only 12 unique characters, there are not many overlapping elements beyond the basic minifigure pieces and 4x3 stand. The Paddle Surfer, Centaur Woman, and Airplane Girl all have overstuffed packages thanks to very large elements, making them easy to pick out at a glance. Many other figures have easy-to-feel, small, unique elements that will quickly shake to the corners of the bag. Only the Cabaret Singer has an inner parts bag.

As always, this guide is intended to help novice hunters by highlighting the easiest and most unique elements. Experienced hunters will be able to use other elements to distinguish between characters.

01 Paddle Surfer

Key element: Dolphin

First look for a bulging pack, as the Dolphin is a huge element. Then feel for the pointed fin, flippers, and C-shaped tail. The sharp points will make it easy to distinguish from the Centaur and Airplane.

3x
quantity
per case

02 Violin Kid

Key element:
Violin

The body of the violin is flat and about the size of a 1x2 tile. It has two prominent pegs; one for the violin neck, and another protruding at a right angle from the back. The Airplane Girl is the only other figure with non-bendy short legs, so you can also search for them, as it should be obvious if there's not an airplane.

3x
quantity
per case

03 Shipwreck Survivor

Key element:
Bottle

The bottle's neck will be an immediate giveaway to feel this 1x1 round element. Alternatively, feel for the 1x1 round plates in the crab's shell to narrow down. The Cabaret Singer also has 1x1 round plates.

3x
quantity
per case

04 Ladybug Girl

Key elements: Bug Wings, 1x1 Round Tile

The tiny 1x1 tiles (1 is extra) should be easy to shake to the bag corners and feel. The large bowl-shaped wings with 2 sharp points are also distinct. The green leaf is also unique but the other two will likely be faster to find.

3x
quantity
per case

05 Pug Costume Guy

Key element:
Bone

The bones (1 is extra) will easily shake to the corners of the bag. About 2 studs long, they are small bars with knobby ends. The pug head and short bendy legs can also be used to ID, but are much more difficult to distinguish.

3x
quantity
per case

06 Centaur Woman

Key element: Centaur Body

Another package with a bulging bag, the huge Centaur Body should be dominant thing you feel in the bag. Feel for the flat sides, long legs, and hip pegs. Many other elements can ID, but the body is easiest.

3x
quantity
per case

07 Beekeeper

Key element: 2x2 Tile

The square 2x2 Tile is only in this figure and makes a quick ID that's easy to feel through the packaging. The cup, which feels like a 1x1 round brick with a handle, is next best.

3x
quantity
per case

08 Ancient Warrior

Key element:
Round Shield

The smooth Round Shield has a prominent handle on the back that should be easy to feel. The sword also makes a good ID but is more difficult to distinguish. The helmet is also unique but very hard to tell by feel.

3x
quantity
per case

09 Airplane Girl

Key element: Airplane

Making this the third overstuffed package in the series, the Airplane has huge flat wings and a distinct tail. It will feel very different from the Centaur Body or Dolphin. Many other elements can ID too, but will be hard to feel around the Airplane.

3x
quantity
per case

10 Space Police Guy

Key element: Shield (Modified plate 2x3)

This minifigure has a lot of small parts in the bag, and many of them can be used to ID. The 2x3 shield is your best bet, as you should be able to feel the 4 studs on the front and large handle on the back.

3x
quantity
per case

11 Alien

Key element: Crowbar

With minimal contents in the bag, it should be easy to find the crowbar with its distinctive hook on one end. The 1x1 crystal is also unique, along with the head, but both are more difficult to ID.

3x
quantity
per case

12 Cabaret Singer

Key element:
Plumed Headdress

The large Plumed Headdress is the quickest giveaway to ID. Shaped like a little like a cupped hand, the feathers will be distinct and sharp. Other elements can also ID, and the easiest will be the Bar 4L (lightsaber blade), or the 1x1 round plate to narrow down to this or the Shipwreck Survivor.

3x
quantity
per case

